

Bergen West

Southern California is home to some of the best roads and some of the best cyclists in the country. I believe we have a unique opportunity to set an example for how a successful cycling association can operate.

If elected, I will:

- Support junior cycling initiatives to get more kids on bikes and to bike races
- Encourage the creation and promotion of gravel races in Southern California
- Be a voice for the racers in the SCNCA