

Entry-Level Commissaire Clinic

Start your officiating journey August 7-8 in Bentonville

Join USA Cycling in Bentonville, Arkansas on August 7-8 for the Entry-Level Commissaire Clinic, held as part of the USA Cycling Regional Development Camp and Education Summit.

This clinic is for individuals interested in getting started in officiating and introduces race operations, officiating, and competitive cycling event management in a structured learning environment alongside athletes, parents, and coaches.

Participants will take part in classroom sessions, discussion, networking opportunities, and exposure to real race scenarios throughout the weekend. New officials will build confidence, gain experience, and better understand officiating within USA Cycling.

Registration is $99 and includes a first year commissaire license upon completion of program requirements, SafeSport training, and background check requirements.

The USA Cycling Regional Development Camp and Education Summit brings junior athletes, parents, coaches, and commissaires together in one shared learning environment, with each group participating in dedicated programming for their role.

Learn more and register today at USA Cycling Regional Development Camp and Education Summit.